From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 2.

Naples, Auguſt 9.

DEputies on the Part of all the Faculties and Corporations of this City have taken an Oath of Fidelity to King Charles, purſuant to the Viceroy's Edict publiſh'd the 28th paſt; and all the Barons of the Kingdom that are here have done the like. 30 Days are allow'd to thoſe abſent within the Kingdom, and 8 Months to thoſe in Spain, to come and ſwear Allegiance likewiſe; and the Eſtates of ſuch as do not make their Appearance within that Time will be confiſcated. We continue to ſend Cannon, Mortars, and Ammunition to Gaeta. The famous Privateer Peppefumo is dead of a burning Fever that carried him off in a few Days. On Tueſday laſt Mount Veſuvio caſt up ſo great a Quantity of Aſhes, that at Noon the Air was as black as in a very dark Night: On this Occaſion a Solemn Proceſſion was made, in which the Head of St. Januarius was carried by Cardinal Pignatelli our Archbiſhop, follow'd by the Viceroy and a great Concourſe of the Nobility and People.

From the Amſt. Gaz. and Cour. dated Sept. 2. and 3.

Rome, Aug. 12. The exceſſive Heats have caus'd Diſtempers here that have carry'd off ſeveral Perſons of Note ſuddenly. They write from Ferrara, that the Marquis Maſſimi who was Caſtellan of the Caſtle of St. Angelo, and at Ferrara had the Office of Sergeant General of Arms, is dead there. The Princeſs of Paleſtrina is retir'd into the Monaſtery of St. Lucia: The Prince her Husband adheres ſtill to the Intereſts of King Philip V. The Prince de Taxis having receiv'd from Count Martinitz a Patent conſtituting him Poſt-maſter General of the Poſts of Naples, the Milaneze, and Catalonia, has put up over his Palace-Gate the Auſtrian Arms of Spain.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 2.

Venice, Aug. 20. The Pope's Nuncio Signior Anguiſciola died here on Thurſday laſt. The Earl of Manchester Ambaſſador of Great Britain cauſes magnificent Gondoloes to be made for his publick Entry. The Electoreſs of Bavaria has her Reſidence at preſent in the Paduan in the Palace Obicci. The Duke of Mantua is at his Palace on the Brenta. We have Advice, that the Bridge which the Imperialiſts had made over the Var, and which was burnt by the Garriſon of Antibes, is repair'd by the Peaſants by order of the German Officer who commands the Troops that block up that Place, and that Officer has enjoyn'd the Communities in that Part of the Country to guard that Bridge from all Damage on pain of military Execution. Laſt Sunday the great Council elected Signior Nicolao Gabrieli, to go to Conſtantinople in the Quality of Ambaſſador of this Republick.

Genoa, Aug. 18. We have receiv'd Advice from Barcelona, that King Charles has caus'd Te Deum to be ſung there, and given an Entertainment to the Nobility and principal Perſons of that Country, for the News he had receiv'd of the Reduction of the Kingdom of Naples to his Obedience.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 3.

Nuremberg, Aug. 26. Of the Conſpiracy diſcover'd in Bavaria we have the following Particulars: That above 6000 Firelocks and a greater Number of Bayonets, conceal'd in Bails of Merchandize, have been ſiez'd at Munich; that ſeveral Perſons diſguis'd in divers Habits have been taken up; that the Elector of Bavaria had deſir'd the King of France to ſupply him with 12000 Men, aſſuring him he ſhould be able with them to recover his own Country and make an Irruption into Auſtria; and that this has been confeſs'd by thoſe that have been taken up for this Conſpiracy.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 1.

Baſil, Aug. 21. We have Advice from Neufchatel, that the ſeveral Pretenders to that Principality are very induſtrious to inform every one of the Grounds of their reſpective Pretentions, and to gain them over to their Intereſts; promiſing to that End ſeveral advantagious Conditions; particularly the King of Pruſſia, the Prince of Conti, and the Duke of Villeroy; but that it does not yet appear who is moſt like to carry it: The Prince of Conti, by publiſhing his Caſe, wherein he endeavours to prove that Neufchatel is alienable, has very much diſguſted the Inhabitants, who regard the Inalienability of it as the chief of their Privileges, and take it the more amiſs, becauſe he endeavours to prove that all their Privileges are only voluntary Conceſſions of their former Princes, and by Conſequence might be broken and made null: But towards the End of his Caſe the Prince of Conti makes an excellent Propoſal to the People of Neufchatel, which is, that the Judges ſhould not for this time have any Regard to the Alienation, but chuſe him for their Prince; promiſing that when he is ſo, he will make a Law, that the Principality ſhall never be alienated without the Conſent of the People. M. de la Clauſure, the French King's Preſident at Geneva, who was to have come to Neufchatel to promote the Intereſts of the Prince of Conti in his Maſters Name, pretends to be ſick to excuſe himſelf from coming: But the true Reaſon is becauſe he knows that the Arguments us'd in the Prince of Conti's Caſe cannot but be very unacceptable to the People of Neufchatel; the States of which Principality will aſſemble in 10 or 11 Days, to conſult of this Affair, which 'tis thought will be delay'd by reaſon of the Ceremonial and perhaps not be determin'd before the End of this War.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 3.

Warſaw Aug. 15. Troops of Muſcovite Horſe and Foot arrive here daily; and 6 Regiments of Horſe are gone from hence to Blonia, where a Camp will will be form'd. The Czar is return'd hither, where 'tis lik ly he will ſtay ſome time, ſeeing the Senators and Nobility make but little Haſte to come to the Great Council appointed to be held the 18th of September; nevertheleſs there is ſtill ſome talk of a new Election. An Envoy from Prince Ragotzki is with the Czar, and is ſo much in his Eſteem, that in caſe of a new Election 'tis likely his Czarish Majeſty will propoſe that Prince; but moſt believe that the Reſolutions of the Diet of Lublin will come to nothing.
